

Springfield, Ills. January 21st 1861

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to enclose you "The New York Times" of which I spoke to you this afternoon and the "Herald" of the 18th instant, which has something on Mexico.

It was my intention as well as my desire, to see you once more before I leave here, but seeing you so busy and so much engaged, and wishing no to distract you at all, I am compelled to beg you to take this note as my bidding adieu, and to accept the assurances of great esteem and respect with which

I am, Sir, your obedient servant
M. Romero

Hen. A. Lincoln,
