

México Down Under

Embassy of Mexico in Australia | Bulletin No. 30

Letter from the Ambassador

Mexico, a rapidly changing country.

On 1 September, President Enrique Peña Nieto presented his Fourth State of the Union Address, complying thus with the constitutional mandate to inform the People of México and the Mexican Congress about the march of the country and the actions taken by the Federal Public Administration.

SEE MORE

FDI to Mexico – First Semester 2016.

The Secretary of Economy of Mexico, reported that Foreign Direct Investment received by Mexico during the first semester of 2016 accounted for $14,385 million USD.

Increasing Awareness in Mexico: Opportunities Promotion August 2016.

August has been a strategic month in deepening the relationship between Australia and Mexico with a strong focus in business promotion activities headed by the ProMexico office in Australia.

Mexican Golden Case.

Mexican gold production reported an increase of 14.4% in 2015 compared to the previous year to reach a total of 4.3 million ounces.

SEE MORE

Global Mexico

The CIMMYT: Mexico and Australia working together for global food security.

During his recent visit to Mexico, Peter Cosgrove, Governor-General of Australia, included as part of his agenda a visit to the headquarters of the International Maize and Wheat Improvement Centre (CIMMYT), located in Texcoco, State of Mexico.

SEE MORE

G20

Mexico Represented in G20.

During September 4-5, Mexican President Enrique Peña Nieto attended the G20 Leaders' Summit in the city of Hangzhou, China.

SEE MORE

Mexicans Down Under

David Iván Trujillo, new Consul and cultural attaché of the Embassy of Mexico.

On August 17th the embassy welcomed its newest member, Mr. David Iván Trujillo, Consul and Cultural Attaché.

SEE MORE