

The Mexican talent is present in the Yamaha Asia-Pacific Junior Original Concert 2012

The Mexican talented young pianist and composer, Eduardo Preciado Becerra, participated in the Yamaha Asia Pacific Junior Original Concert (JOC) 2012, at the prestigious Dewan Filharmonik Petronas, in Kuala Lumpur, on November 6th, 2012.

Eduardo's composition was selected from those submitted to competition by Yamaha students in Mexico. His participation in this year's JOC is his second international event after his performance in Korea in 2011. He is already invited to perform in Hong Kong in 2013.

JOC has been taking place since 1972 as "international" and "Asia Pacific" event. The rest of the participants came from, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand and the host, Malaysia.

Deputy Prime Minister of Malaysia, Muhyiddin Yassin, who is also Minister for Elementary Education, was the Guest of Honor of the JOC. At the end of the event he gave warm words of support and encouragement to the young composers to continue creating music, because music knows no boundaries.
